

Diana Daubney, Dionne Reid and Rachael Sandford enjoy the red carpet treatment at a charity ball at Derby's Rolls-Royce Pavilion in Moor Lane. The three women attended the Red Carpet Ball in aid of Women's Work Derbyshire. Dionne, chief executive of the organisation, said: "It was great, more than 200 people came. We didn't expect that from our very first event." Organisers have raised £1,500 from the raffle and auction so far and hope to eventually break the £2,000 barrier.
